

Kalman Filter Question

What are the two main models needed by the standard Kalman Filter?

1) The process model, which specifies how the state updates over time. 2) The observation model, which specifies the relationship between the current state and what is observed.