Track Discussion Question

What are some of the issues that arise when using a adaptive background model (at least as described in these lectures)?