Image Geometry Review Problem

Assume a camera at the origin $(0, 0, 0)'$ with axes aligned with the coordinate axes. Assume a focal length of 10 mm. Where would a point $(10, 20, 30)'$ in the scene be seen in the image plane (ignore mm to pixel conversion for now)?